

Reconstruction Plans

Plan A	Plan B	Plan C
Oath of allegiance for a pardon.	Oath of allegiance for pardon.	Establish five military districts in the South.
No pardon for Confederate officers and government officials	Oath of allegiance, ask president for a pardon for Confederate officers and government officials.	No pardons for Confederate officers.
Write a new constitution after 10% took the loyalty oath.	Write new state constitutions.	Write new state constitutions.
Hold statewide elections after a new constitution is written.	Hold statewide elections after a new constitution is written.	Hold statewide elections.
No rights for African Americans including the right to vote.	No rights for African Americans. Each state will decide what rights to give African Americans. (Including the right to vote.)	Guarantee equal rights to all male citizens. (Including African Americans)
No Amendment ratification requirement.	Ratify the 13 th Amendment. (Abolishes Slavery)	Ratify the 13 th and the 14 th Amendment.
	South will not be punished too harshly because it might cause too much resentment.	Allow African Americans to vote for people who will write the new constitutions. (This will allow African Americans to be a part of the writing process.)
		All adult black males and all white males who were not Confederate leaders or supporters, can vote.
		The Freedmen must get assistance in establishing new lives.
		If Southern states do not accept the 14 th Amendment, the military will have to occupy and control the region.

Use the back of this page to create a list of objectives (something that one's efforts or actions are intended to attain or accomplish; purpose; goal; target) that you want to accomplish with your reconstruction plan.